Sales at selling events are taxable. Examples include: Antique shows, Craft fairs, coin shows, comic book shows, Convention exhibit areas, Fairs, Flea Markets, and Stamp shows. Any person who pays consideration of any kind to sell at such an event is considered to be in business and must collect sales tax on all retail sales of taxable items.

In order to sell merchandise at the Downtown Oronoco Gold Rush Days (August 19-21, 2016), the State of Minnesota, Department of Revenue, requires the completion of an ST-19 form (attached); or a written statement. If you meet all of the following criteria you may not need a Minnesota Sales and Use tax identification number.

- This is the only selling event I am participating in for this calendar year
- I am participating in events for three or fewer days in a calendar year
- I will make less than $500 in total sales in this calendar year

You may not set-up your merchandise before submitting the ST19 Operator Certificate of Compliance or this form by Thursday, August 18, 2016.

For more information, see Fact Sheet 148, Selling, Event Exhibitors and Operators. Failure to complete one of these two forms may result in a penalty for Downtown Oronoco Gold Rush Days or the homeowner of $100 per vendor for each day of the event. (See MN Statutes 289A.60, subdivision 17). For additional information see www.revenue.state.mn.us Fact sheet 132 and 148.
